

EXTREME LIVING

Scan to review worksheet

Expemo code:

1H8M-L1L9-F2F

1

Warm up

Answer these questions.

1. What is the weather like where you are today?
2. What is the winter weather in your country usually like?
3. What's the worst, or most extreme, winter weather you have ever experienced?

2

Watch for main idea

The photo next to the title of the worksheet and the photo below show Yakutsk in Russia, the coldest city on earth. You are going to watch a video about this place. Firstly, in pairs describe the pictures.

Before you watch, guess the correct answer to the sentences below. Then watch the report to check your ideas.

1. The population of Yakutsk is...
 - a. 20,000
 - b. 200,000
 - c. 2 million
2. The average high temperature in January is...
 - a. minus 20°C
 - b. minus 30°C
 - c. minus 40°C
3. The lowest temperature ever recorded in an inhabited place is...
 - a. minus 58°C
 - b. minus 68°C
 - c. minus 78°C
4. In Yakutsk children stop going to school only when the temperature is below...
 - a. minus 45°C
 - b. minus 55°C
 - c. minus 65°C
5. In summer in Yakutsk, the temperature reaches a maximum of...
 - a. 15°C
 - b. 25°C
 - c. 35°C

What's the most surprising thing in the report?

3

Vocabulary

Part A: Match these words from the report with their correct definition.

Group 1

- | | |
|----------------------|--|
| 1. nippy | a. difficult, needing careful attention |
| 2. frostbite | b. an informal word to describe slightly cold weather, similar to chilly |
| 3. cope | c. people who live in a particular area |
| 4. tricky | d. find a way to survive or be successful in a difficult situation |
| 5. the locals | e. a medical condition where parts of the body are damaged by extreme cold |

Group 2

- | | |
|---------------------|---|
| 1. tolerance | a. able to survive in extreme conditions or difficult situations |
| 2. hardy | b. relating to what people think is the right or wrong way to behave |
| 3. sympathy | c. a feeling of understanding and caring about someone else when they are having a difficult time |
| 4. homeland | d. a feeling of accepting other people's ideas, even though you might not agree with them |
| 5. ethical | e. the country of your birth |

Part B: Now answer the questions:

1. Which words are adjectives?

2. Which word is an adjective that is being used as a noun? What other examples of this structure can you think of?

3. What are the adjective forms of sympathy and tolerance?

4

Watch for detail

Work in A/B pairs. Watch the report again and answer the questions in your exercise. Then share answers with your partner.

Student A

1. What temperature is described as "nippy" in Yakutsk? Is this really the right word for this temperature?

2. What is the significance of the term, "The Pole of Cold"?

3. The report says, "The level of tolerance is hard to believe". What two examples are given?

4. What is summer like in Yakutsk?

Student B

1. What is described as being "tricky" and why? Is there a better word to describe this?

2. Besides the low temperatures, what other condition makes the daily life of locals very difficult? How is this caused?

3. How do locals feel about wearing fur clothing?

4. How do locals feel about moving away from the area?

5

Vocabulary in context

Complete the collocations and phrases from the text and match them to their correct definitions.

- | | |
|---------------|-------------|
| 1. constant | a. market |
| 2. remote | b. danger |
| 3. inhabited | c. city |
| 4. exhaust | d. fumes |
| 5. open-air | e. efforts |
| 6. building | f. sites |
| 7. be used to | g. the cold |
| 8. huge | h. place |

1. _____ a place where people buy and sell things outdoors
2. _____ places where new houses or structures are going up
3. _____ large amounts of work and energy to achieve something
4. _____ something that can always harm you
5. _____ a city that is far away from other towns and cities
6. _____ a place where people live
7. _____ feel that this condition is familiar and not a problem
8. _____ waste gas and smoke that comes out of a car's engine

Part B: What's the difference between these two phrases?

1. Traders say that they are used to the cold, adding that human beings can get used to anything.

6

Talking point

Discuss these questions in pairs or small groups.

1. Are you used to cold weather? Do you think you could get used to living in Yakutsk? How would you cope with the cold?
2. People in Yakutsk leave their car engines on for many hours every day. Can you suggest any other ways for them to use transport so that pollution is reduced?
3. To what extent do you agree with the people in Yakutsk about wearing fur clothing?
4. Read the captions for the two photos. How interesting (and how enjoyable) would it be to visit Yakutsk as a tourist?

The underground Permafrost Museum in Yakutsk. Permafrost is land that is always frozen below ground.

A statue of a mammoth, a type of hairy elephant that is no longer alive today. People sometimes find mammoths frozen in the ground in the area around Yakutsk.